

LOC.R. 57.3 CASE NUMBER

All filings, including attachments, must have the case number on the upper portion of each page not bearing the case caption. Only the Court shall enter the case number on any original will when filed for record only or when filed for admission to probate. Only the Court shall enter the case number on the cover envelope for any will filed with the Court for safekeeping.